From the Galveston News.

CIRCUMSTANCES ATTENDING THE CAPTURE OF PRESIDENT DAVIS.

LETTER FROM HON. J. H. REAGAN.

PALE-TINE, TEXAS, Aug. 10, 1869.

I find the following passages in what purports to be a speech delivered in the convention of Texas, on the 6th of January, 1869, by Judge L. D. Evans, under the heading, in large letters,

"THEY WANT AN EMPIRE."

"On the fall of Richmond, Jefferson Davis started the Confederate Treasury westward, deluding himself with the dream of a trans-Mississippi empire.

"I asked his Postmaster General, Mr. Reagan, how it was that the President of their Confederacy should be caught with his baggage wagons in the awkard plight of being under his wife's cloak. He informed me that Davis had left his trains and struck for the seaboard, when after a day's ride, hearing that the Confederate force had disbanded, and would probably endanger the safety of his family, he returned.

I suspect that Davis feared more for the safety of his Confederate Treasury, which he hoped to get safely into Texas, where, had Magruder been able to keep his army together, a nucleus for the material of war would have enabled him to continue the struggle."

The speech containing these passages was extensively circulated through Texas last spring, and was sent to myself and others here. I then intended to call attention to the errors in the above paragraphs, but in my hurry of business, neglected to do so. A new batch of these speeches is now being circulated through the State, and I am favored with a second copy.

On the first paragraph of the above, I have only to say that on the fall of Richmond President Davis did not start "deluding himself with the dream of a trans-Mississippi empire." He left Richmond with the hope of uniting the armies of Generals Lee and Johnston, and with the further hope, after this should be done, of meeting and defeating the armies of Generals Sherman and Grant before they could form a junction; or, if this could not be done, of occupying the first good defensive line which might be chosen after the junction of the forces of Generals Lee and Johnston. D sperate as the fortunes of war then were for the Confederacy, he had not abandoned the hope of carrying on the struggle east of the Mississippi.

On the second paragraph I have to say that Mr. Davis and his cabinet and staff officers left their baggage wagon and all their personal baggage, except such as each took for himself in his saddle bags, at Abbeville, South Carolina. The train which carried such supplies as were taken from that to Washington, Georgia, and what funds still remained in the Confederate Treasury, were under the escort of the few remaining cavalry troops. And this train went no further than the latter place. Some days after leaving Washington, Mr. Davis was captured in the Southern part of that State.

While at Danville, Virginia, he learned of the surrender of Gen. Lee, and shortly after he left Charlotte, North Carolina, he learned of the surrender of General Johnston. So it is seen he was not "caught with his baggage wagons;" that he had long before known of the surrender of the armies in that part of the Confederacy; that he had no trains to return to; and that he did not then, for the first time, learn of the disbanding of the Confederate forces as the inducement to his return to his trains.

I have not seen Judge Evans since November, 1865, and do not remember or believe that he ever asked me the question he puts in this paragraph. I am sure I could not have made him the answer he puts in my mouth, for it would have been untrue in fact.

Mr. Davis' family left Richmond in March, perhaps in the early part of that month. Richmond was evacuated on the 2d of April. He did not see his family after they left Richmond until a little before daylight on the 7th of May, when he, happening to hear of them, and that they were in serious danger, accompanied by a few faithful friends had gone to their relief.—He and those friends traveled with his family that day, and camped with them that night. The next morning they separated, but, from inacurate information as to roads, were again by accident thrown together in the evening and camped together that night, traveled together the next day, and were captured at daylight the next morning, the 10th of May. As he had not previously seen his family after they left Richmond, there was no returning to them.

On the third paragraph I have to say that Judge Evans' suspicions that Mr. Davis feared more for the safety of his Confederate Treasury than for his family, is mere mental speculation without the support of facts. The Confederate treasure at Washington, Georgia, consisted, as was supposed, of some eight five thousand dollars in gold, some thirty or thirty five thousand dollars in silver coin, about the same amount in silver bullion, and between six and seven hundred thousand dollars in Confederate Treasury notes. The silver coin was paid to the troops who were there, so much to each man and officer without reference to rank, as it was too bulky and inconvenient, under the circumstances which surrounded us, to be safely transported to our depositories at Bermuda, Nassau or Liverpool. For the same reason the silver bullion was turned over to a Major Moses of the commissary department, and was left at Washington in an ordinary warehouse. The gold was placed in the hands of two officers of the Confederate Navy, then there, with instructions to convey it, as soon as this could safely be done, to one of the depositories above named. While in prison I saw statements in the New York papers that amount of gold and of silver bullion corresponding to the above had been captured by the Federal forces. Before leaving Washington I directed the acting Treasurer to burn the Confederate Treasury notes above named in the presence of the Secretary of War, Gen. Breckinridge and myself.

Mr. Davis was captured nearly a week after this, in Southern Georgia, and therefore, Judge Evans' suspicions that he cared more for this treasure than for his family are as baseless in truth as they are unmanly and ungenerous in inference.

These passages in that speech seem to have been an awkward attempt in this modified form to revive the exploded story of Mr. Davis being captured in female attire, with bags of gold upon him, invented and used at first to excite against him feelings of ridicule and contempt, and now, after the lapse of nearly four years, revived in Texas, and pressed into service for the purpose of arousing unjust suspicions against former Confederates, and to be used as a means of showing to the people of Texas that they ought to divide the present State into several in order to guard against the designs attributed by Judge Evans to Mr. Davis, and others, at the time of the fall of Richmond, of a desire to establish a Trans-Mississippi empire. If the facts presented by Judge Evans for this purpose are ludicrous, what must be thought of his logic, and of his respect for the intelligence of the body he was addressing, and of the people to whom this speech is sent?

In this connection I think it right for me to make a statement in justice to Mr. Davis, which has not heretofore been made public, as far as I know, and a part of which is only known to him and myself:

In coming through South Carolina, he and myself riding ahead of our company passed a cabin on the roadside, when he asked a woman who was standing in the door for a drink of water. On handing it to him she said, "are you President Davis?" On his replying in the affirmative, she said to him, pointing to a little boy barely large enough to walk a little, "that is your namesake, we call him Jeff. Davis." He took from his pocket a gold coin, apparently the size of a three-dollar piece or sovereign, and handing it to her told her to give it to the little boy—saying to me as he rode off that that was his last piece of coin, which he had kept as a sort of keepsake on account of its being a coin seldom seen in this country.

Subsequently, when in company with several members of his Cabinet, the subject of their finances was mentioned, and their poverty was made, among themselves, the subject of passing amusement. Mr. Davis took out his pocket book and counted, I think, about two hundred and seventy dollars in Confederate Treasury notes, then almost entirely worthless, and said, laughingly, that was his fortune in money. He then added, that it was a source of gratification rather than of regret that himself and nearly all the members of his Cabinet had sacrificed their private fortunes in the struggle for the liberty of the people. I will also add, that when it was determined, after the surrender of Gen. Johnston, to transfer the field of military operations to the west of the Mississippi, one of his Cabinet told Mr. Davis that he had money enough to take them both across that river.

These facts are given to show the injustice which has been done to one whose hopes and thoughts and energies were all wholly devoted to the cause, then so dear to us, in which he was engaged; and who, amidst his all engrossing public duties and responsibilities, took no thought of his private fortune or of his personal safety.

I am persuaded that the wise and good and honorable, even among those who thought him wrong in his support of the cause of Southern independence, and imperiled their lives in opposing him on the battle field, will accord to him sincerity of convictions as to the righteousness of the cause in which he was engaged, integrity of purpose, and those great qualities of head and heart which fitted him to be the leader of a heroic people in a great struggle.

I know the time has not yet fully come for explanations like this to be received without offense to the prejudices of many good people, who have only viewed Mr. Davis of late years a public enemy. But I trust now, since that cause has been forever abandoned, the generous and just will see that I but performed a duty to one who while he is in a distant land, is yet very dear to me and to millions of others in the United States.

Very respectfully,

JOHN H. REAGAN.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Ouyler.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, AUGUST 30, 1869.

BE NOT DECEIVED.

Many of the Radical newspapers are making a great fuss and exultation over what they pretend to believe the disintegration of the Democratic party; and from day to day, we hear of this paper and that, as having come out in favor of the Republican party; while they claim that to be the only national party in existence in the country. It is unnecessary to say to those who are familiar with current political history, that all this is mere rodomontade and clap-trap. There has not been a day in the calender of the last three months that there has not been five declensions from the Radical party to one from the Conservative or Democratic. We mean from the Radical or Republican party as constituted for the last four years, characterized by the reconstruction acts of Congress and represented by Stevens, Butler, Boutwell, Wade, Wilson, and the rest of that stripe at the national capital, and (to descend to small things) by Holden, Abbott, Laflin, Reade, Tourgee, Cuffee Mayo, Watts, Deweese, Friday Jones and Windy Billy Henderson, and other political stars of the forty-seventh magnitude, in North Carolina.

The Republican party can only be known and judged of by its acts, and what are these? Is it necessary to rehearse the ten thousand acts of oppression, the unjust and proscriptive laws, the insults, the robbery, that has been inflicted on the South in the name and under the sanction of Republican laws and by Republican officers? Take the features of their policy—disfranchisement and the test oath; The Radical papers are now declaring in favor of the removal of all political disabilities and the abrogation of the test oath; and the Raleigh Standard, the party organ in this State, claims that these features are, and have been, prominent planks in the Republican platform. If this be true, why has not the disabilities been removed? Why is the test oath required to this day, in every Southern State, of those who hold even the most petty offices in the Revenue, Postoffice, or other departments? They have had unobstructed power to carry out the policy of the party on these subjects, if indeed it had been the policy of the party to do it.

The truth is, and it is established and rendered incontrovertible by all the acts of the party,—in Congress, in the States where Republicanism has been in the ascendant, by their papers and their public speakers, that they intend to give the franchise (have given it) to the negro; in other words, enforce universal suffrage, and, at the same time, to place the iron hand of proscription upon thousands and tens of thousands of the white citizens of the country.

The Republican party leaders do not intend to extend the liberality and magnanimity that their newspapers are boasting to be a part of their principles and policy. We have had no intimation that they will do it, but, from their former acts, we have every reason to suppose they will not do it, if they can help it. Proscription, high taxation, favoritism to bondholders, are the leading features in the Republican creed, and whenever a member of the party, or a newspaper, takes opposition to these, he is an apostate to that party; he has "come over" to the milder and more liberal views of the great Conservative party of the country.

Let no one be deceived, however, by any signs of repentance in the leaders or newspapers of the Radicals, by any plausible soft-talk they may employ. Movements are on foot to draw to their support many who, believing in their sincerity, and desiring the acomplisment of universal amnesty, may be induced to cast in their lot with them, and thus enable them to retain their hold on the public spoils. The people are sincere, but the leaders are not to be trusted. In this State not a word has escaped the lips of a single leader of the Republican party to induce the belief that he endorses the new platform of the Standard and other Republican papers of the State. Nor do they endorse it. Gov. Holden, to-day, would resist, to the bitter end, the removal of political disabilities from a large number of the proscribed in the State; unless it were apparent that resistance was useless.

We say again, be not deceived. Virginia yet may lose the fruits of the compromise she made in the recent election. And we have every reason to believe that the administration at Washington is opposed to every movement that does not give Radicalmen and Radical measures the predominance in all things.

EFFECTS OF THE DROUGHT.—The drought in some sections of Augusta Co., Va., has destroyed the grass to that degree as not to afford sufficient pasturage for the grasshoppers, which, in consequence, are now feeding upon the corn blades—in some localities, we learn, stripping the stalks bare of fodder blades.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—We can best appreciate the advantages of home by trying those of other places. The Providence of God has made it my duty to travel a good deal over this State, and it has long been my habit to amuse and instruct myself by studying the moral condition and the industrial resources of the regions through which I pass.—Agriculturally, Tennessee seems to be far superior to North Carolina: The lands, as a whole, have a more fertile soil, and the universal prevalance of lime makes it easier to keep up this fertility; but I cannot say that this State has advantages over ours even in the productions of the soil; for, while a few articles, such as corn, wheat, oats and clover can be raised in greater abundance, there are others for the growth of which Tennessee will not compare with North Carolina. There is no such region here for grazing as parts of western N. C., and for fruit of the finer varieties our State far surpasses this—in fact, has no superiors. There is no estimating the extent and value of the peach crop that could be raised in our State—and the region west of the Blue Ridge cannot raise either Irish or sweet potatoes, melons like those grown on the other side.

But it is in water power, mineral resources, and variety of interests that the contrast in our State and this is most manifest, and most to the advantage of N. Carolina. Most of the limestone region of the United States is badly watered—many of the Springs and smaller streams drying up in summer, and even in the mountains, stock is often watered from wells, tanks and cisterns. The limestone is porous and the water sinks through it to a more compact formation below; or to one acustomed to associate the mountains with cold, pure, pervennial fountains, running brooks forming water-falls and crystal torrents, as in N. Carolina, it is hard to conceive of of the Asiatic appearance of things, at this late season, on this side of the Unaka range. The universal character of the West like its agricultural, is comparatively simple and monotonous. Limestone and iron are the only available minerals to be expected in quantity, with now and then workable veins of zinc and lead. Even the famous Ducktown mines are, according to Prof. Safford, State Geologist of Tennessee, misplaced geographically, for, as he properly suggests, they belong, geologically, to North Carolina, and they are, in fact, just on our borders, and their leads run into our State and Virginia.

A hand book of mineralogy is my companion in my travels, but it is, comparatively, a poor resource on this side of the Alleghanies. How varied, how intensely interesting, how incalculably valuable, are the minerals of North Carolina! Almost everything of this kind that is rare, or beautiful, or precious or useful, may be looked for in our good old State; and the wayfarer, in every part of the country above the alluvial region, may hope to discover valuable veins of ore, and various, precious and useful stones. Our woody growth, our flowers and our landscape, are the most varied on the Continent; and for bright skies, salubrious climate, and pure, sweet, abundant, unfailing water, where is the superior of our fatherland, on the whole of this round earth?

NORTH CAROLINA.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 25, 1869.

In former days, whenever the Federal authorities did anything that seemed to the party out of power to be an infraction of the spirit or letter of the law, the whole opposition press was wont to sing out in chorus, "keep it before the people." Now, when the Government tramples down the very Constitution itself with the coolest indifference to the rights or opinions of its subjects, we are afraid that but little immediate good will result from keeping its usurpations before the people. Nevertheless, it is our duty as journalists to vindicate principles, even if the mass of the people have apparently ceased to care about them, and to denounce the wrong, even though some grow weary of the language of complaint. In the hope of the ultimate regeneration of the country, we shall continue to keep before the people the fallen and degraded condition of our once proud Republic. A late Paris journal commenting on the fact that a citizen had been confined for two months in prison without undergoing any examination, remarks: "That such a disregard of individual liberty should still be possible in France eighty years after the capture of the Bastile and the suppression of lettres de cachet is humiliating to the country familiarized as it has been by every Government with indifference to individual liberty."

Arbitrary arrests, it appears, then excite at least some indignation in benighted Europe, governed as it is, according to thousands of American orators, only by besotted despots. Last week General Ames, now, by the grace of the bayonet, supreme ruler over Mississippi, issued to his subordinates the following order: "The Commanding General direct that you do not obey in future any writ of habeas corpus issued by the United States District Court or Circuit Court, or any order made by such Courts for the release of prisoners in your custody. Should such a writ or order be served upon you report the fact by telegraph." Thus at a stroke of a soldier's pen vanish popular rights that were won at Runnymede. Thus disappear provisions for the protection of civil liberty which Charles Stuart lost his head for violating. Thus vanish into thin air the bulwarks of free institutions as erected by the framers of the Constitution who would have died in their defence.—"Keep it before the people."—Baltimore Gazette.

The Augusta (Ga.,) Chronicle and Sentinel, alluding to those "Yankee heroes" who assembled at Gettysburg, for mutual admiration purposes, makes the following appropriate suggestions, which we heartily second:

"Now, that they have finished with Gettysburg we have a proposition to make to these 'Union' Generals: Will they not bring McDowell to Manassas and let him "identify and mark" the spot where the Bull Run races first began; carry Burnside to the banks of the Rappahanock and let him raise a monument in honor of Fredericksburg; let "fighting Joe Hooker" plant a triumphal arch at Chancellorsville; and allow John Pope to draw a diagram of Cedar Run and the Second Manassas?

A meeting of the members of the Fayetteville Bar, was held in the office of the Probate Judge, on Saturday 21st, at which Wm. B. Wright Esq., presided, for the purpose of paying a tribute of respect to the memory of the late James C. Dobbin. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Messrs. Wm. B. Wright, W. H. Haight, James C. McRae, Thomas C. Fuller and French Strange, and appropriate resolutions were adopted.

SINGULAR CAUSE OF BLINDNESS.—Robt. L. Whitten, an insurance agent in Pittsburg, recently became blind after having himself shaved in the barber shop of the Monongahela House, of that City. The barber had wiped his face, after shaving him, with a towell which had been used in the application of arsenic to whiten the complexion.

NEGRO INSURRECTION IN BURKE COUNTY.

Three Prominent White Citizens Seized by a Negro Mob and Barely Escape Hanging—Particulars of their Rescue and the Capture of the Negro Ringleaders.

From a gentleman who arrived yesterday morning on the train from Macon, we learn the following particulars of a negro riot in Burke county, which, but for the prompt measures of the white citizens, would have been attended with most serious results:

It appears that the dead body of a negro was found on Sunday morning at Herndon, station No. 9 on the Central Railroad. The cause of his death was unknown, but the negroes in that vicinity at once attributed it to the Ku Klux, and as a rumor to this effect soon circulated, gaining additional horrors as it spread the excitement among them became intense. From all the neighboring plantations they began to assemble, evidently summoned by some controlling authority, until at least three hundred armed men were holding angry council.

Without going into any examination or inquiry as to the cause of the death, they determined to take the law into their own hands—or rather to disregard all law, and hang three of the most prominent citizens of the place, as they alleged, in retaliation for the murder of one of their color. Accordingly, they arrested three brothers named Jones—most respectable citizens, and doubtless well known to many in Savannah—whom they dragged away from their terrified families without explaining the nature of their designs upon them, or allow a last word, and hurried into the woods.

Without delay they began to make preparations to hang their three victims, who now for the first time realized the horrible fate awaiting them. With admirable presence of mind, one of the brothers begged to be allowed to go under escort to say farewell to the families of the three, and give some last directions to them. To this the yelling demons would not accede; but finally, through the intercession of one of the negroes, whose heart was hardly as black as his skin, they consented, and the brothers parted with this slender thread of hope buoying them up, that the delay might afford time for a rescue. Arrived at his house, Mr. Jones managed to escape from his escort and make his way to the station, just as a train was coming in. His story was quickly told, and, as quickly as a locomotive could do it, the train was backed down to Millen, where a force of fifty armed men was hurriedly collected and en route for the scene of this outrage. Meanwhile the hanging party delayed their operations, waiting for the return of those who had escorted Jones, while they in their return, ignorant of the direction he had taken in his flight, had kept up a vain search, not daring to return without him.—The arrival upon the scene of these fifty determined, well armed men put an end at once to the court of Judge Lynch, rescued the two condemned men and caused an instantaneous stampede of the negroes.—Several of the ringleaders were, however, captured and given up to the proper authorities, who will, we trust, deal with them as they eminently deserve.

THE LITTLE GAME AT GETTYSBURG.

The recent gathering together of ci-devant military men at Gettysburg to "indicate the points of interest on the battle-field" was, it has become evident, the shrewd dodge of a bucolic book-maker, whereby an incubating volume of his is to be widely advertised, and its forthcoming contents made known at the expense and under the guise of a "reunion of the Federal and Confederate Generals." From the false pretences, the transparent telegrams, and the lame and impotent conclusion attending this affair, it may be judiciously characterized as a more atrocious job than the marriage of Tom Thumb, the Boston Jubilee, and the Stowe Byron paper itself. These latter had their compensation. This Gettysburg little game, in inception, progress, and sequence, has been announced and reported solely in the interest of a so-called military history not yet in press. The assumption of patriotic and pacific motives inspiring this "reunion" movement is as cool as the result of it is ridiculous. "Reunion" there was none. A few Federal fighters were chicaned into attendance; a swarm of civilians and a cloud of the Grand Army of the Republic darkened the air. Eminent Confederate generals were coarsely and falsely announced as sure to come. None came; but from the gallant Lee did come a decorous disclaimer of the book advertising and sectional phases of the fraud. General Lee had been impudently telegraphed as "intending to be present so as to relieve the public mind of the idea that he was dissatisfied with the system of reconstruction and that he did not accept the situation." This insult was as much a menace as a bid. But it missed its mark. The General, in a letter which we printed yesterday, without noticing this gratuitous slur, advocates "the examples of those nations who endeavored to obliterate the marks of civil strife, and to commit to oblivion the feelings it engendered."—After which excellent and truly patriotic sentiments, fortified by the accompanying letter of General Fitzhugh Lee, his son, how puerile and contemptible appears the inexplicable and dumb show through which those lured to the place were led by the book-maker, who has literally "boomed the business." It is time that humbugs were no longer foisted upon the public in this manner. When advertising is to be done outside of Boston, let it be done in a legitimate way. This hauling of non combatants over battle fields and the antecedent and subsequent accounts of the little game spuriously perpetrated in the name of news are discreditable, and merit the failure which stamped the proceedings in perpetration and in outcome.—N. Y. World.

A DETERMINED GIRL.—Miss Carrie Ketchum, the young girl who was shot and it was supposed mortally wounded by her lover, Salvador Collot, in the City Park, in New Orleans, three or four weeks since, has persistently refused to testify against him. The New Orleans Picayune says:

"She has unexpectedly recovered from her wounds, and on Friday last was taken before the grand jury, and still refused to answer any questions. The foreman reported the facts to the court, and the judge asked her if thirty days' confinement would soften her obstinacy, when she amid tears answered that she was not obstinate, but had nothing to say. The judge finally told her that he was afraid, if forced to give evidence, she would commit perjury to save the accused from well deserved punishment; and as the grand jury had requested it, he would discharge her from custody. She was married to Collot on the same evening."

The manner in which the laws of the State are overridden in Virginia, at the dictum of the one man power is illustrated in the following sentence: At Pittsylvania County Court last Monday Wm. Leshy, who was removed from the office of Sheriff a month ago because he could not give the usual bond, appeared and took the office again by order of General Canby, without giving any security.

THE WORLD'S FAIR IN LONDON IN 1871.

The official circular in relation to the proposed international exhibition in London, in 1871, has been published. The programme embraces departments of fine arts divided into classes, scientific inventions and new discoveries of all kinds, manufactures and horticulture. One-third portion of the whole available space will be assigned absolutely to foreign exhibitors, who must obtain certificates for the admission of their objects from their respective governments. Foreign countries will appoint their own judges. All exhibitors or their agents must deliver at the building, into the charge of the proper officers, the objects unpacked and ready for immediate exhibition, and free of all charges for carriage, &c. Her Majesty's commissioners will find large glass cases, stands and fittings, free of cost to the exhibitors, and, except in the case of machinery, carry out the arrangement of the objects by their own officers.—Her Majesty's commissioners will take the greatest possible care of all objects, but they will not hold themselves responsible for loss or damage of any kind. Prices may be attached to the objects, and exhibitors will be encouraged to state their prices. Agents will be appointed to attend to the interests of exhibitors. Every object must be accompanied with a descriptive label, stating the special reason, whether of excellence, novelty, or cheapness, etc., why it is offered for exhibition. There will be no prizes, but a certificate of having obtained the distinction of admission to the exhibition will be given to each exhibitor.

In the little village of Mattue, Austria, Schiller's "William Tell" was lately represented, the manager's son taking the part of Tell's Son. In the apple scene the actor let go the arrow before taking good aim and the child's eye was put out. He shrieked aloud and fell in convulsions.—The audience rushed upon the stage to wreak vengeance upon the manager for having ventured his son in such a place, but the poor man ran for his life. This incident impels the Paris Figaro to tell another story. Seven or eight centuries ago in Norway, the religious play of "The Mystery of the Passion" was enacted before the king, Haquin. Just as one of the actors was about to nail the representative of the Savior, to the cross, the king jumped upon the stage and killed the executioner. The people, furious that the play had been interrupted, precipitated themselves also upon the stage and killed their sovereign. And this is how the dynasty of Haquin became extinct.

DECORATIVE PAINTING.—A new method of applying paint in houses has recently been introduced into Paris, by which the disagreeable smell attendant upon freshly painted surfaces may be entirely escaped. This consists in applying the paint in the shop first upon tin foil, which is spread upon damp glass and treated exactly as it it were a surface to be coated. As many coats are given of such tints as may be desired, and when perfectly dry the foil with its paint is removed from the glass rolled up upon a roller and carried to the building where it is to be used. A water proof mixture is first applied to the wall or surface to be coated, and then the painted foil is put on, as if it were wall paper. The flexibility of the foil permits its application, even to surfaces of an irregular character, and it may be so skillfully done that it is difficult to realize that the paint was not put on coat by coat, as in common painting. Gilding may be effected in the same manner, by first applying the gilt leaf to the tin foil and then fastening this to the surface desired. The advantage of this method of tin gilding consists in the fact that it does not so easily become tarnished as the ordinary gilding.

THE SOUTHERN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—At the last regular meeting of this Society, recently held in New Orleans, which is now fully organized for the purpose of the records of the late struggle for Confederate independence, several interesting and important letters were read, among them one from Gen. R. E. Lee, signifying his acceptance, with pleasure, of the vice Presidency for Virginia, and saying that "it is highly important to collect and record reliable historical information, especially in periods of rapid change, such as the present," and offering to render cheerfully any service that may aid this object in Virginia. Also letters from Gen. Wade Hampton, Admiral Raphael Semmes, ex-Secretary S. R. Mallory, ex-Governor R. G. Humphreys, of Mississippi, and others, approving of the object of the Society, and offering their services. Mr. Jefferson Davis was elected an honorary member, and the Society then adjourned to meet again on the second Monday in September.

LARGE PURCHASE OF LAND IN VIRGINIA.—A party of northern capitalists, at the head of whom are H. J. Davis, of Boston, and a Mr. Vandyke, of New York, have purchased the entire Thornton estate, containing seven thousand five hundred acres of land, located at Thornton's Station, on the Alexandria, London and Hampshire railroad, in the county of Fairfax, for $150,000. The tract is to be laid off immediately and divided into small lots, and a town is to be laid off upon the property after the plan of Vineland, in New Jersey. It is stated by Messrs. Green & Wise, real estate agents, from whom the above information is obtained, that this project is to be carried out at once, and that the managers of the enterprise have made such arrangements as will insure the occupation of their land by a large number of people from the North at an early day—Alexandria Gazette.

CONFEDERATE PICNIC AT MEMPHIS, TENN.—The Memphis Avalanche of the 22d inst., has the following:

"The grand picnic under the auspices of the Confederate Soldiers Relief and Historical Society, which came off yesterday at James' Park, was a most magnificent success, and one of the most enjoyable fete champetre that has ever been given in Memphis. Almost every citizen in Memphis felt that something should be done for the relief of the widows and the orphan children of those who had freely given their lives for a lost but not dishonored cause, and therefore all were ready to contribute their dollar for the noble object the society has in view."

The total majority of Colonel W. C Sherrod, Congressman elect from the Sixth Alabama District, over the combined vote of Hough and Hinds, both Radicals, is ascertained to be more than 2,700. Colonel Sherrod, during the war, was a Major on General Ruddy's staff, but has had his political disabilities removed by Congress.

There were seven coroner's inquests in St. Louis on Saturday, four of which were deaths from sun stroke.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—The residence of Mr. Albert Schaack, at Fort Washington, New York, was entered on Wednesday afternoon and $15,000 in silver plate and jewelry carried off. No clue to the robbers.

The Loyal League of Charleston, South Carolina, on Friday last adopted a resolution expelling Congressman C. C. Bowen from that body for infamous conduct.

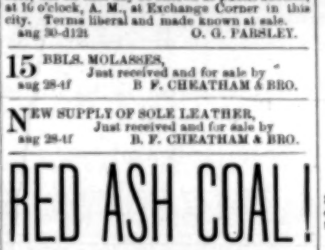
GULLETT'S COTTON GIN.



ON EXHIBITION AT MY STORE, A "GULLETT'S STEEL BRUSH GIN."

The Gin is of a very superior style of workmanship, gins more Cotton in a given time than any Gin of the same number of saws; picks the seed cleaner; leaves no motes or nap; does not waste the lint by throwing it over the walls of the room where it is being ginned; does not cut the lint, but brings it out in beautiful bats.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages, over other Gins, named in this advertissement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.

The "Gullett Gin" has been awarded the Premium at the several STATE FAIRS of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi.

I am Agent for its sale and would be pleased to fill orders.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union.

Raleigh, Aug 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E JOHNSON, M D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhart are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully,
F. J HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H. McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of Spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is most complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.

DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869.

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses procured and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28, 1866.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1866.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the Spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr. Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a protection against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them

U. S. Commissioners Court.—On Saturday last Mr. McKenzie Roberts, of Granville, was brought before Commissioner Porter, charged with having in his possession empty tobacco boxes without having the stamps defaced, and also with having removed tobacco from his factory without stamping the same properly. Owing to the absence of an important witness, the case was laid over and Mr. Roberts was released upon his own recognizance to appear before the Commisioner on the 8th of September next.

New Spelling.—Somebody wants to know how we spell "university"—we spell it according to circumstrances; in its present forlorn and dilapidated condition, we spell it with a considerable twistification. If anybody thinks we have misspelled it, to such we say, we spell it better than it deserves.

First in Market.—The first bale of new North Carolina cotton, received in Baltimore, arrived there on the 25th inst., via Norfolk, and consigned to Messrs. Hawkins, Williamson & Co.

Sale of Real Estate.—Saturday morning, at the Court House, according to advertisement, the following property belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah Stronach, was sold: A residence on Hargett street, purchased by Mr. King, of the firm of Whitelaw & King, for $3,500, a vacant lot on the same street, was bid off by Wm. Grimes, Esq., at $560, and a tract of land lying in Swift Creek District, three or four miles from this city, was bought by Thos. J. Jenkins, Esq., at $425

We call especial attention to a letter from Hon. John H. Reagan, Postmaster General of the late Confederacy, which can be found in our outside columns. It gives the facts attending President Davis' journey from Richmond, Va., and subsequent capture.

Publishing the Appointments.—The Standard says we attempted to be "merry" over its publishing Bishop Atkinson's appointments, without publishing them ourselt, in the Sentinel, after being requested to do so by the Wilmington Journal. We did publish them, as requested, on the 5th and 6th of July, again on the 8th, and occasionally for several days, dropping those that had been filled. Again, on the 7th of August, we published the change in the two last appointments of the round, by request.

The fact is, the Standard was asleep, and just waked up on Friday morning last, and published the appointments after their dates.

Look Sharp.—Why is it that we get the Newbern Journal of Commerce from the West the day after its publication, instead of from the East on the day it is dated, as we do the Times and other Eastern exchanges? We get the Times by the train from Goldsborough on the day it is dated, and the Journal of Commerce of the same day, by the train from Charlotte, next morning. We know enough of mail matters to make allowance for an occasional occurrence of this sort, but this thing has occurred for several days in succession, and we cannot account for it.

Mystical Document.—A friend sends us an original legal document, issued by one of Hoiden's Magistrates in Caldwell county, and requests us to publish it as a legal and literary curiosity of the times. We would gladly comply with the request, if we could, but it is impossible—we cannot read it, and we have no type, in our office that would print hieroglyphics like those in which the dispenser of justice has clothed his opinion, or his order, or judgement, or whatever it is, on the paper in question. But we do not think such a rare legal literary, chirographical and "loil" document should be lost to the world for want of being comprehended, so we shall fix it up neatly with accompanying explanations, and forward it, to Wood's Museum in New York for preservation.

On account of the great number of wonderful cures of obstinate and inveterate cases of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Kidney Affections, General Bad Health, &c., made by the celebrated "Kookoo," it has won the enviable reputation of being the best and most popular medicine ever discovered. It is daily prescribed by physicians, and recommended by many thousands of our best citizens. For sale by Druggists and Merchants everywhere.

Ladies suffering from any disease peculiar to their sex, can be restored to health by using Dr. Lawrence's "Woman's Friend." It purifies the secretions, and restores the system to a healthy condition.

The N. C. R. & P. Estate Agency.—Many inquiries and much dissatisfaction has resulted from the postponement of the grand drawing of the N. C. Real and Personal Estate Agency, which was to have taken place on the 28th inst., and so many rumors had obtained currency, that, on Saturday morning we called on Mr. Hester, President of the Company, and on R. G. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer, for an explanation of the facts which lead to the postponement, and received in substance, the following statement:

Many of the Agents for the sale of tickets had not reported their sales nor returns, so the management could not arrange for the drawing on the day set, and do justice to ticket-holders. They further found it necessary to reduce the proportions of the scheme, and also to make a change in the arrangement of the articles included in the prize list, to conform the same to the sales of tickets. Both gentlemen named gave us assurance that there is no ground for the unfavorable rumors concerning the drawing, or the operations of the Company, and that a full and satisfactory explanation will be given the public, in a day or two in relation to the whole matter. We were assured that all who are not satisfied with the explanation when given, will have their money refunded on application. We refrain from further remarks in regard to the matter, at present, and await the promised explanation.

A Treat.—We had a treat of two fine watermelons on Saturday, which we enjoyed much. It was a Radical treat, but none the less relished on that account.

Western North Carolina Railroad.—The Stockholders in the Western North Carolina Road, Eastern Division, held their annual meeting on Thursday last. The State was represented by Tod. R. Caldwell, under the appointment both of Gov. Holden and Col. Harris. The following Directory was elected: Dr. J. J. Mott, W. H. Howerton, J. L. Henry, J. C. Cowles, T. R. Caldwell, W. G. Chandler, J. W. Bowman, S. McD. Tate, R. A. Caldwell, C. S. Corpening, N. W. Woodfin, and R. F. Simonton.

Wonder what was the exact price paid for the wire-working that brought about the result?

The Journal complains that there is not a bathing saloon in Wilmington.

Messrs. Straus & Rice, whose factory was burned in Wilmington several weeks ago, will be rebuilt and all ready to renew operations by the 1st of Oct.

The Star learns that about one hundred and fifty of the Robeson county "melish" have been arrested for overdoing their duty while hunting for robbers.

There is to be a regatta on Wrightsville Sound, below Wilmington, this week.

A bale of cotton from the "shoe heel" section, on the W. C. & R. Railroad arrived in Wilmington on Friday last, consigned to Sprunt & Hinson.

The bridges over the Northwest and Northeast branches of the Cape Fear at Wilmington have been finished and are ready for the passage of the trains.

All Rads.—A gentlemen residing in a township in Lenoir county, where twelve of the recently captured marauders lived, informs the Goldsboro Messenger that eleven of the twelve were Rads and voted the Radical ticket at the last election.

Another Lenoir Marauder has been captured; so says the Journal of Commerce.—The examination of the gang will take place to-morrow, (Tuesday.)

Moses Melton and Frank Boone took a shooting frolic, each making the other his target, a few days ago, at Hertford, and both were put in jail for their fun.

Some of the young men of Newbern have organized a Literary Society for mutual improvement.

Since our last issue, the number of pupils at the W. F. College under the direction of Rev. Turner M. Jones has largely increased. Each day's coach from the depot comes crowded with young ladies from every portion of the State and everything indicates a greater degree of prosperity for this institution than it has ever before enjoyed.

Mr. Jones can accommodate a hundred and fifty pupils, his buildings are furnished with every requisite for a first class college, his corps of teachers is unsurpassed, the facilities for visiting our village are nowhere excelled, and in no city or town in the State is there more refinement and general intelligence.

Pupils at the College have choice of attendance at four churches (all Protestant.)—Warrenton Living Present.

We learn from the Living Present, that Castleman, Professor of horse taming, was in Warrenton last week and delivered a horse and mule lecture. A class of fifteen was formed, to take lessons in the art and mystery of taming horses and mules. We would like to hear, when it is over, if they think they have got their money's worth.

Superior Court for Warren county was held last week; Judge Watts presided—the Living Present says no important case had been tried, up to Friday.

An election is to be held on the 16th prox., in Fayetteville to vote on the proposition of a city subscription of $75,000 to the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad.

"The right honorable and distinguished Benjamin F. Butler, of Massachusetts, has offered an opinion in the case of Virginia, and his opinion is to the effect that those officers elected, who cannot take the test-oath, "because of their participation in the rebellion," should be set aside, and those whom they defeated admitted. Once there was a time in this country when the thief was not permitted to express an opinion in the case of honest men, and a time when honest men were in positions of trust, instead of plunderers and speculators. These times have gone. Then there was another time, so many years ago, when a mob put Christ upon the cross and cried that Barabbas, the thief, might be saved. And those times are returning.

Colonel Charles Marshall, of Baltimore, who was acting assistant adjutant general on the staff on General R. E. Lee, sent the following reply to the Gettysburg Committee:

"I beg leave to decline most respectfully the invitation to attend the proposed meeting."

An extensive gang of horse-thieves and pickpockets has been unearthed by the detectives, through the arrest of several of the gang in Vincinnes and Washington, Indiana, one of whom turned State's evidence. The orgnization extends from Sedalia, Mo., via Mitchell and Seymour, Ind., to a town in Kentucky, members of the gang being stationed in all the large cities along the route.

Rights of Naturalized Citizens.—In response to inquiries, Hamilton Fish, the Secretary of State, gives the following opinion:

"Naturalized and native born citizens are entitled to the same protection from the government when in a foreign country, and both in such case are ordinarily subject to the laws of such country, and are bound to observe those laws to the same extent to which its own citizens or subjects are bound.

"If they reside in such foreign country so as to become domiciled there, they further take upon themselves the duties and obligations toward the government of that country which attach to permanent residents.

"It is also possible for a naturalized citizen, by returning to his native country, and residing there with evident intent to remain, or by accepting offices there inconsistent with his adopted citizenship, or by concealing, for a length of time, the fact of his naturalization, and passing himself as a citizen of his native country, until occasion may make it his interest to ask the intervention of the country of his adoption for other ways which may show an intent to abandon his acquired rights, to so far resume his original allegiance as to absolve the government of his adopted country from the obligation to protect him as a citizen while he remains in his native land."

Pretty Women. A comparatively few Ladies monopolize the Beauty as well as the attention of Society. This ought not to be so, but it is; and will be while men are foolish and single out pretty faces for companions.

This can all be changed by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which gives the Bloom of Youth and a refined sparkling Beauty to the Complexion, pleasing powerful and natural.

No lady need complain of a red, tanned, freckled or rustic Complexion who will invest seventy-five cents in Hagan's Magnolia Balm. Its effects are truly wonderful. To Preserve and Dress the Hair use Lyon's Kathairon. aug. 28. 1m

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

Knickerbocker,	$16,54
Equitable,	17,44
North America,	21,16
Brooklyn,	21,09
Universal,	27,24
John Hancock,	18,27
The National,	63,48
The Ætna,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 12,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

VANDERBILT'S MARRIAGE.

From the Syracuse Journal 23d.

The gossip that has been current in the newspapers for several months, that the venerable Cornelius Vanderbilt, the world wide known millionaire and railroad king, was seriously contemplating matrimony, has been verified. He was married at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning last, at London, Canada, to Miss Frank Crawford, daughter of a widow lady, Mrs. M. E. Crawford, of Mobile, Ala. Mr. Augustus Schell, of New York, and Superintendent Tillinghast, of the Central, were the only guests present at the wedding ceremony.—Commodore is in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and has been a widower about a year. The bride is about thirty years of age, and quite a good-looking, though by no means beautiful, woman. She was very expensively and elegantly attired. Immediately after the marriage ceremony was performed, the bridal party, consisting of the Commodore, his wife, and a waiting-maid, Messrs. Schell, and Tillinghast, came eastward in the Commodore's special car, which was attached to the Pacific Express train, reaching this city at 8½ o'clock Saturday evening. The special car was stopped in front of the Vanderbilt House, when the Commodore and his wife alighted and hastened to the most elegant apartments the hotel contains. This distinguished consideration, as it is called, was paid this particular hotel because of its having been named in honor of the Commodore. The same parties were guests at the Vanderbilt on the 23d of June last, when they were on the way to Niagara Falls. Miss Crawford, now the Commodore's wife, was then accompanied by her mother. During the sojourn of the bridal party at the Vanderbilt, the Commodore and bride were not visible. They closely kept their rooms, where their meals were served; and the veteran was only seen below stairs once, when he got shaved, and, it is added, paid the fortunate barber a fee of one dollar. It is further gossiped that fifty dollars was distributed to the waiters of the hotel, by his direction. Mr. Schell was the purveyor of the party, seeing to all the arrangements for their entertainment and paying all the bills. Curious groups hung about the hotel Saturday evening and Sunday morning. A few persons witnessed the arrival of the party, and quite a large crowd of curiosity seekers saw the departure. The Commodore was very lively indeed, and quite graceful and courteous in his attentions to his wife. He is in as good a state of preservation, despite his seventy and three years as most men at fifty. The Commodore's special car was drawn before the main entrance of the Vanderbilt, a few minutes before nine o'clock, Sunday morning, the bridal party moved speedily from the hotel to their places in the car, and away sped the locomotive for Schenectady and Saratoga Springs. With a clear track and no incumbrances, the time to the Springs was made in about four hours. At 1 o'clock the happy pair were comfortably ensconced in their quarters at Congress Hall. The sojourners at the Springs were taken by surprise by the unexpected arrival of the Commodore and bride, for though the current gossip had foreshadowed the marriage, the event was suddenly precipitated upon the gossip-mongers who for once were forestalled in their prophecies.

Koskoo!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the Country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE,

has induced Dr. Lawrence to ENLARGE HIS LABORATORY and FACILITIES for MANUFACTURING, so as to be enabled to supply the extraordinary demand for it.

THE LARGE NUMBER OF TESTIMONIALS which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons WHO HAVE BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

As a BLOOD PURIFIER, it HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY THE

Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative

YET DISCOVERED!

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth. To say nothing of those humors that are hereditary, we can easily see how the Blood may become bad from imperfect Digestion or failure of excretion, and how this may influence the process of Nutrition, and thus influence all the functional activities of the body.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues lose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are affected with scrofula in some form.

Persons suffering from any bad humor are very liable to have it settle on the Lungs or some other vital organ. The only safe rule is to remove the Blood poison at once, before it settles itself upon some vital point.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO!

AS A

LIVER INVIGORATOR!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

BEING THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, without debilitating the system. While it acts FREELY upon the Liver instead of COPIOUS PURGING, it gradually changes the discharges to a PERFECTLY NATURAL STATE.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of WONDERFUL EFFICACY in the cure of diseases of the KIDNEYS and BLADDER. In these affections it is as near A SPECIFIC as ANY remedy can be. It does its work KINDLY, SILENTLY, and SURELY. The RELIEF which it affords is both CERTAIN and PERCEPTIBLE.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the IMPORTANCE of their healthy action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the U. ine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the urine being imperfectly secreted in kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

MEETS WITH GREAT SUCCESS IN THE CURE OF

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, (mental and physical) are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful ratio.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows: A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes a sore or severe pain or headache; Periodical headaches, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in answering questions; Dulness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Imbecility, Apoplexy, &c., &c.

CONCLUSION.

Suffering reader, do not think that because you have tried other remedies, you cannot be cured, but recollect that God, in His Providence, has not afflicted His children with pain and disease, without at the same time giving them something in the Great Garden of Nature that will cure them.

Have no hesitation in writing to me, and stating your case in full, and I will answer you promptly.
